In many aspects, 2014 served as a tipping point for our organization. What was driven for 11 years by a team of dedicated volunteers shifted to a movement headed by an executive director. This shift resulted in a series of growing pains as we crafted an internal structure.

Regardless, our agenda was full and we obliged, founding the Western Treasure Valley's first community foundation, supporting local projects, joining initiatives, investing back into our region and all along the way defining our resources.

Much of our energy focused on capitalizing relationships, aligning opportunities and molding solutions. For example, when the community of Jordan Valley found itself with limited resources, we helped them setup a breakfast program for students. We also directed funds to the Four Rivers Community Garden, Treasure Valley Children's Relief Nursery, Festival of Trees and Giggles & Grace Learning Center.

We assisted on seemingly countless projects including the Eastern Oregon Nonprofit Conference, Mexican Independence Day, Hands Around The Park, The 10-Man Mayhem Dodgeball Tournament, Emerging Leaders Summit, Cradle To Career, and the Systems of Care Governance.

Looking back, we have a lot to be excited about and thankful for in 2014. But the best news of all is we are just getting started. Take a look and see what we are about, then join us and make a difference.

Sincerely,
Casey Clark Ney, 4RHC Executive Director
